

YOUNG ADULT KONNECTIONS
Y.A.K.
FUTURE TRANSITIONS
MAKING THE MOVE

WHAT? The goal of Y.A.K., Young Adult Konnections is for young adults to develop the independent skills required to connect, plan and participate in desired community activities with their peers. The main focus of Y.A.K. is to promote independent community involvement and participation. Therefore, Simcoe Community Services will not be liable or responsible for the young adults. Transition Coordinators will not provide supervision or transportation. Mediators are welcome.

WHY? This “independent networking group” for young adults has been organized by the Simcoe Community Services Transition Coordinators based on input from graduated young adults, parents, advocates and support staff.

WHO? Young adults with an intellectual disability who are out of school and requesting an enhancement of their social/recreational opportunities are welcome to attend.
